

Call for Participants(AGU 2026)

Asynchronous Global Understanding (AGU) is a cultural exchange program established by East Carolina University in the USA. It provides a unique opportunity for academic collaboration with international students. The AGU program is tailored for students who are unable to participate in live sessions. Participants can enroll on a secure platform, allowing them to send and receive videos with their distant partners at their own pace. This virtual program is open to ENP students from all majors (except for those in the 1st and 2nd preparatory cycles). Selection is competitive, and participants must have a good command of English. The partner country for this session is CHINA.
